

Our Legacy of Faith

We all want to leave a legacy, to be remembered when we're gone. A legacy comes from faithfully and lovingly living your convictions. Joshua challenges the Israelites, making a definitive statement as their leader and head of his family: "We will serve the LORD." Notice that it isn't a question of if you will serve someone, but who you will serve.

The easiest way to find out who you are serving is to look where your heart, thoughts, and worries are. Jesus said, "Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be" (Matthew 6:21).

Peter also had this hard choice placed to him, and he spoke up as the first pope, the head of a family of believers. When Jesus revealed the doctrine of the Eucharist, that it was truly his body and blood, many left him over this difficult saying.

Jesus asks the apostles if they want to leave, too. He could have said this was just a symbol—that those who left had misunderstood. But he doesn't change his teaching. He merely asks the apostles if they accept and believe him.

Peter's answer, like Joshua's, is a fundamental option. He finds in Jesus' words eternal life. There is nowhere else to go when you have tasted the goodness and truth of Jesus. As hard as some of those truths may be, for Peter there is no turning away. Following Jesus faithfully will lead him to lay down his life for Jesus, crucified upside down, and buried on Vatican Hill where you can visit his tomb today. How's that for a legacy?

For Reflection

What are my convictions, and what ideal do I love and live for?

Will that ideal last in time and into eternity? There is still time to adjust.

Pastors letter to the People of St. Ignatius

I write this letter, a bit sad, on the eve of the funeral of our dear brother and loving servant, Fr Terry Borgerding. Another great sadness is, you have probably heard about the clergy scandal in Pennsylvania. Perhaps celebrating the life of a great priest who cherished our young people and all the people at Saint Ignatius, may be the best way to approach the scandal. Remembering such a priest makes me renew my commitment to the protection of children and vulnerable adults in our parish, and more than just protect, I want to cherish the people that God has put into my sacred trust as a servant priest. And I can assure you, due to the excellent oversight of Mrs Sue Hecktor, our parish monitor, and my own resolve to be a Shepherd protector, St Ignatius received top marks from the recently visiting Diocesan official for following the guidelines for the protection of all of our youth whenever any adult has contact with them. Additionally, this weekend we welcome to our worship community a Missionary from Africa, Fr Emmanuel Luhumbu. Let him see the Spirit of generosity in a real Church community!!

Blessings.

Fr Steve

Dear Padre,

How does one become a patron saint?

Patron saints are nominated by various groups and reconfirmed by the Holy See. The patron saint then becomes the heavenly protector of the individuals, institutions, or specialized activities that are placed under the saint's care. Those under the saint's patronage are encouraged to call for the saint's intercession and to follow the example of the saint's life.

The choosing of patrons dates back to the early centuries of the Church, when Christians were named after the apostles and martyrs and churches were named after angels.

The popularity of patron saints grew in the Middle Ages, when every circumstance of life had a heavenly protector. Examples of this are St. Michael, as the patron invoked to protect bell towers against lightning strikes, and St. Maurice, the patron of sword smiths. In the age of exploration, whole cities and even newly discovered countries were put under the protection of the saints (San Francisco is protected by St. Francis. Two Caribbean islands are named after saints, St. Lucia and St. Vincent).

If you wish to see a searchable listing of all the patron saints, a good place to go is catholic.org/saints/patron.php. May your patron saint always watch over you and protect you!

Teresa of Ávila is the patron saint of headache sufferers.

A Word From Pope Francis

The living legacy of martyrs gives us peace and unity today. They teach us that, with the power of love, with meekness, one can fight against arrogance, violence and war, and one can bring about peace with patience....O Lord, make us worthy witnesses to the gospel and to your love.

—Homily remembering martyrs of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, April 22, 2017
