Finding Strength in the Cross

Arturo Mari, the photographer who followed St. John Paul II from the first to the last day of his pontificate, was once asked which of the millions of photos he took of the pope captured him best. He cited the ones of the pope holding his crozier, resting his head on it as he prayed during so many Masses around the world. This silver pastoral cross accompanied St. John Paul everywhere (at right) and was his constant companion in all of his sufferings.

It shows Jesus hanging from a cross that is literally bowing under the weight of his body. You can feel the pull of gravity drawing the victim down in desperation. The photos show St. John Paul resting his forehead on the back of the cross, lost in prayer.

The papal photographer said this image more than any other summed up the pontiff because, before becoming a public figure who changed world history, he was a man of prayer, deeply loving Jesus. He was a man immersed in prayer who spent hours on his knees in order to have the strength to stand with and for those who most needed him.

This is a lesson for us. In order to live the beatitudes, we need to lean on Jesus and find our strength in him. Resting ourselves on the empty side of the crucifix is the best place to learn to love like him and be strong like him.

For Reflection

Do I believe in the patience and love of Christ on the cross as the best show of strength?

Pastor's letter to the People of St. Ignatius

If you've been following the news, you know the Church needs your prayer this week in a huge way! From Feb. 21st to 24th, Pope Francis is gathering all of the Bishops to come to some clearer reforms to correct the clergy sex abuse scandal AGAIN! While the reforms in the Church in the US have helped, they are still not enough. The reforms that are most difficult to design have to do with ongoing accountability of all Bishops and priests. That is hard to design because our Church leadership Doctrine is based on senior clergy being their own authority in their day to day Ministry. Please pray for Pope Francis to have the Wisdom of Solomon--no, of Jesus--to figure out effective accountability for all clergy. Speaking of a good occasion for more prayer.....We waited till this bulletin to publish the new weekly Eucharistic Adoration times for you, so that the organizers could have a trial run for a week. No surprise, given the quality of our St. Ignatius brothers and sisters, it went quite smoothly. So now, we are ready to announce officially the new times for all of you to come. Be aware, this schedule could still shift a bit....

Weekly Adoration times:

Tues. 11am-4pm; 5:30-9:30pm, with 7:30 p.m. Mass and PH Devotions also during that segment

Wed. 7-9pm

Thurs. 5-7am, with 6 a.m. Mass also during that segment.

Monthly Adoration:

First Fridays, 8:45 a.m.-noon.

All parishioners, and anyone else whom you wish to tell, now you have all of these times during which you may drop in at your Church and find the One Whom we adore, generously present to you on His altar. Come and remember His Church, much in need of reform!

Come and find peace!!

Father Steve

Lk 6:39–45

Dear Padre,

At Mass, the priest lifts the chalice and says the blood of Christ “will be poured out for you and for many.” For decades, the wording was “all” not “many.” Why the change?

A 2001 Vatican document, On the Use of Vernacular Languages in the Publication of the Books of the Roman Liturgy (Liturgiam Authenticam), called for a strict alignment between liturgical texts and the original Latin. Consequently, the current English translation of The Roman Missal (third edition) includes a more literal translation of “Et cum spiritu tuo” as “And with your spirit” rather than the loose translation “And also with you.”

Likewise, the change from “all” to “many” in the words of consecration has to do with the Latin text pro multis, for which the exact translation is “for many.” Moreover, “for many” also aligns with the words of Jesus at the Last Supper in the Gospels of Mark (14:24) and Matthew (26:28).

And Scripture scholar Daniel Harrington, SJ, cites the Suffering Servant who “bore the sins of many” in Isaiah 53:12 as the basis for the passages in Mark and Matthew. Others, however, question if the exact translation “for many” misrepresents Christ’s universal offer of salvation by his death on the cross. To be clear, Jesus died to offer salvation to everyone, even though it’s possible that some won’t accept his offer. As the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments says: “‘For many’ is a faithful translation of pro multis, whereas ‘for all’ is rather an explanation of the sort that belongs properly to catechesis.”

THE LAST SUPPER / JUAN DE JUANES / WIKIMEDIA

A Word from Pope Francis

The cross of Christ bears the suffering and the sin of mankind, including our own. Jesus accepts all this with open arms, bearing on his shoulders our crosses and saying to us: “Have courage! You do not carry your cross alone! I carry it with you.”
