

Tweaked by God

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

While the Scripture readings this week remind us we are responsible for one another, do any of us really want someone serving as our conscience, telling us what to do? A national insurance company once aired a TV ad in which “Cynthia” takes it upon herself to make sure everyone was abiding by the established regulations of the subdivision. She checks to make sure everyone is breaking down cardboard, cuts down hanging flower baskets that are contrary to regulations, and takes a chainsaw to mailboxes that are even two inches too high.

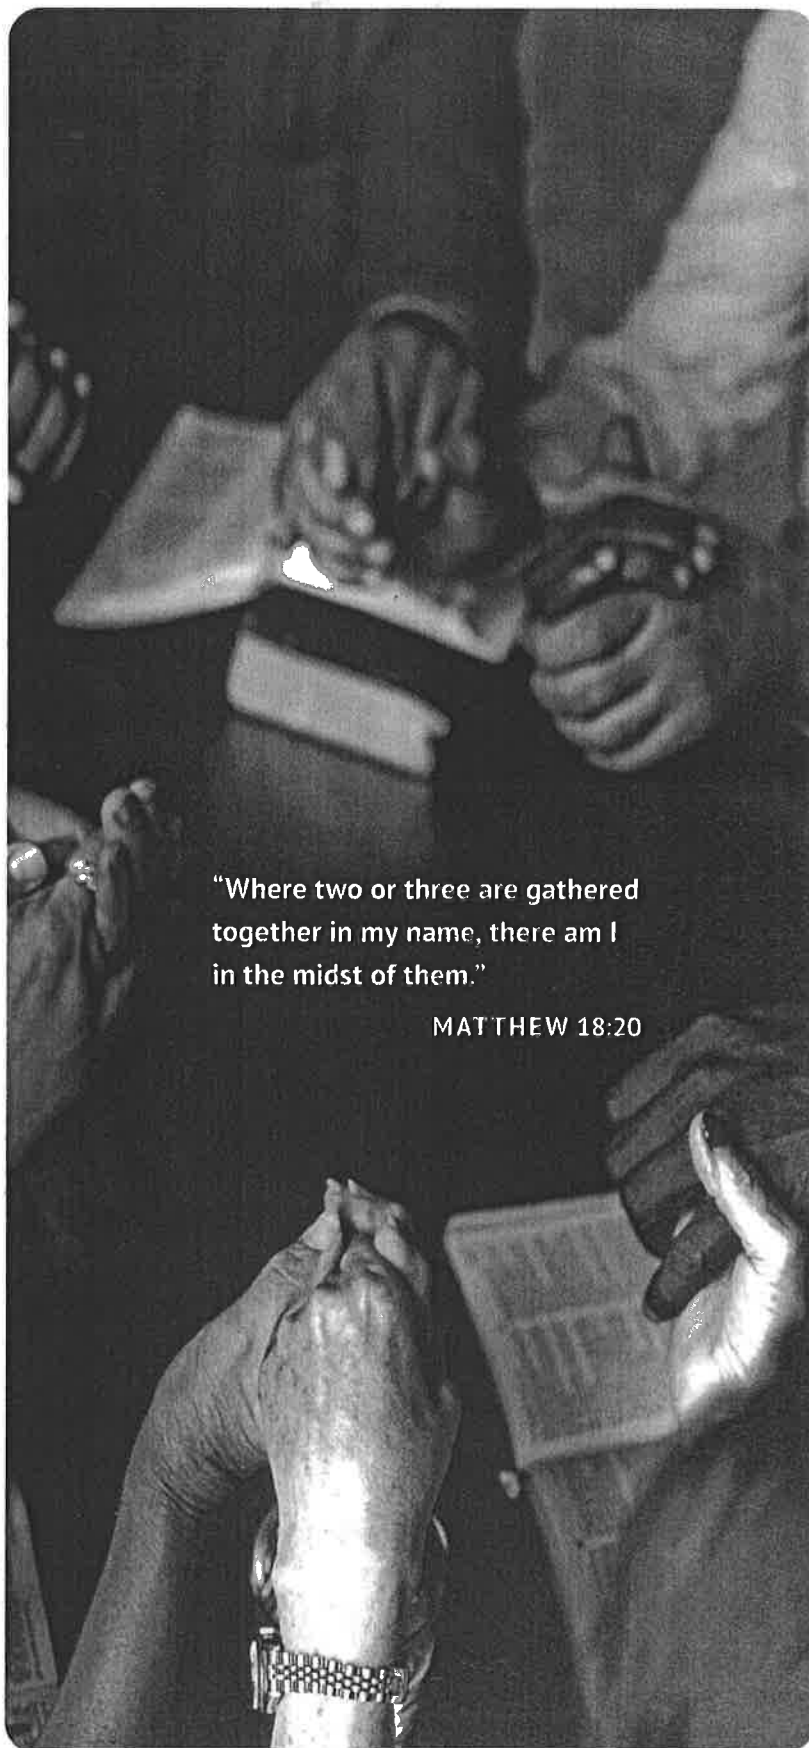

None of us want a “Cynthia” for a neighbor. It may be that it takes a community to raise a child, but once we have become adults—well, thanks but no thanks. So what do we do with these readings?

The Gospel adds the ingredient of community to the “cake batter.” Praying with a faith community can help correct our personal opinion, remind us what we might be blind to, and broaden our vision by affirming that we are a part of a larger world, all from the perspective of faith.

A faith community that reflects “Cynthia” thinking is a church that seeks to control. It motivates by fear, discourages prayerful reflection, and expects everyone to march in unison. A healthy faith community is a church that respects everyone as serious individuals of faith, encourages study and dialogue to seek out truth, and recognizes that growth in faith occurs in different ways. Prayerful, respectful communities of faith are how God tweaks our lives. ●

Reflect

What role does the faith community play in your religious practice and your spirituality?

“Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

Dear Parish Family,

We are beginning preparations for our annual Thanksgiving Day Dinner, and we could use some feedback to help this tradition to continue.

The Dinner was first held back in 1915 as a way to celebrate the completion of our then new school building and parish hall. Since then, this tradition has grown into something quite special. This is not just our tradition anymore; many, many families look forward to our dinner every year. Last year, we served 1,365 dinners (dine-in and carry-out) and profited just over $26,000. This is not just a fundraiser, either; it is a means of evangelization.

In order for us to continue this fundraiser, we ask everyone in the Parish to work one shift each year. We understand that there are years in which it does not work for you (i.e., out of town, sick, little ones at home), but when we do not get enough workers to cover a shift, it causes other workers to work multiple shifts. In the past, we have always just assigned a shift to each parishioner. We understand that some of you have been doing the same job for many years. One of the main reasons why this day runs as smoothly as it does is due to so many people knowing exactly what they need to do the day of the Dinner. That being said, it does not work to rotate people around to different positions every year. This year, we are asking you to tell us what time you would be willing to work and what position you would like to have. If you want to be moved to a new position, we will try our best to accommodate that, but those who have been in that position the longest will get first chance at it. Some positions are split into three shifts, others only two.

Every role is vital to the success of this day. We also ask that you let us know if you are aware of someone who needs to be added or removed from our worklist. Please fill out the attached form and return it to the Parish Office, or fill out the form online using the QR code below, by October 1, 2023. This is so we can get the work list finalized and printed in a timely manner.

Thank you for your help,

Thanksgiving Day Dinner Committee

Any other comments or suggestions?

Dear Padre,

Recently our new pastor relocated the rectory away from the church and parish office. Why is this becoming more common?

"The laborer deserves his payment" from Luke 10:7 has been traditionally interpreted to suggest that ministers for the Lord engaged in pastoral service are provided with certain basic necessities, such as a place to call home. Some priests are now choosing a distinct location in which to live that is apart from where their ministry is primarily conducted. A reason for this move is often attributed to rectories that have no clear boundaries between the private living space and the parish office.

While clergy in apostolic ministry are not necessarily seeking a cloistered existence, they do deserve the fundamental privacies enjoyed by everyone else. Sometimes this courtesy is not respected by those who have an unhealthy curiosity about the lives of their parish priests or by those who are preoccupied with being "in the know" (and sharing what they know with the rest of the congregation).

Dedicated priests can be accessible and available at various hours during the day or night without having to live in a fishbowl. Sometimes this may warrant a new rectory location or facility, especially if the pastor in stocking feet on his day off can't pour his morning coffee without stumbling into a DRE staff meeting! ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The great gossip is the devil, who always goes about saying bad things about others, because he is the liar who seeks to separate the Church to distance brothers and sisters and not create community. Please, brothers and sisters, let us make an effort not to gossip. Gossip is a plague more awful than Covid!
