God's Reign in Heaven and Earth

The trumpeters in the center of the huge Sistine Chapel wall fresco declare the new reign of God, the coming of the new Jerusalem, which was sent from heaven from God Most High. This new heaven and earth is the civilization of love brought about by Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

It's not an abstract ideal or some faraway lost city. It's a city that exists in heaven around the throne of the Lamb and grows by means of the Church as God's kingdom on earth.

Just as Paul and Barnabas appointed elders and the Church took on a stable, hierarchical structure, we are reminded of the historical growth of this city of love—God's Church on earth. From the beginning it was founded on faith. The apostles prayed, fasted, and commended these elders to the Lord. It was their common faith in Christ that was the foundation of this new kingdom of God.

The glory of this kingdom isn't in church buildings or organizations, but it's the glory that Jesus mentions in today's Gospel. "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him" (John 13:31). It's the glory that comes from Jesus' faithful love toward the Father and his disciples, leading him to be enthroned on the cross and rule as the Lamb that was slain yet still stands. It is the new commandment of love that is their glory. Thus the bride that is the Church will be great to the degree that it loves like Jesus, its husband and King.

For Reflection

Do I believe that the essence of real, lasting power is found in love?

Old forms of hate and division are destined to pass away. Am I hastening the arrival of the new kingdom by the love with which I live?

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

[Jesus said,] "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

Pastor's letter to the People of St. Ignatius

I'm sure I share great joy with all of you for the way the Lord blesses us during Easter time as a Church. I have been so moved to be part of our First Communion, the end of the school year Masses with all of our day school children, the Baccalaureate Mass with our Borgia High School Seniors, and 8th Grade graduation. These events display our wonderful young people, moving through a Sacrament of Initiation or a great transition time in life, to show God's life breaking forth. Weddings, Baptisms, and Confirmations in this Easter and after Easter time, bring the same joy to our faith community about God breaking out. Then, besides the joy we feel sharing all of these sacred breakout moments, the Lord offers us an even greater joy after they happen. We get to see these breakout people act on what they have received in these sacred moments. God will call them to become, as we celebrated last Sunday, 'good shepherds.' I have watched this year's day school 8th graders become real Shepherds, as they have walked with their little friends, three and four-year-olds, and always protected them and made them feel special. They have spread love and warmth and humor and a great Spirit of service all through our day school. I'm excited to think what kind of servants these graduates will be as they enter High School. These are the kind of young people that renew my commitment and my desire to be a true Shepherd priest. How does this account of their presence among us, inspire you?

Much love!

Father Steve

Dear Padre,

Can people with celiac disease take substitutes for the wheat host?

This is becoming an increasingly important pastoral issue. In some cases, food allergies are so toxic that even a bit of the allergen can lead to death. Attention was drawn to this issue when a bishop refused a mother's request to allow her child to receive first Communion with a wafer made from rice. The bishop suggested the child receive Communion only from the cup. Not satisfied by this recommendation, the entire family joined a Christian denomination that allowed the use of rice wafers.

The Vatican has decreed that there must be at least some gluten to make the host valid bread for Communion and that men who have celiac disease shouldn't be admitted to the priesthood because the priest must be able to eat and drink the Body and Blood of Christ.

So how much is some gluten? The Vatican was not specific. A group of US Benedictine nuns took on the challenge of making a wheat host that would contain .01 percent gluten. Their recipe was approved by the Vatican in July 2003. Since that approval, the nuns have been amazed at the number of requests they receive for these low-gluten wafers.

Low-gluten hosts are usually purchased by the parish and consecrated at the same time as the gluten hosts, with the low-gluten hosts placed in a separate container. Communicants who can't tolerate even the low-gluten hosts may choose to share only in the cup of Communion.

A Word from Pope Francis

We must not forget that we celebrate the Eucharist in order to become eucharistic men and women. What does this mean? It means allowing Christ to act within our deeds: that his thoughts may be our thoughts, his feelings our own, his choices our choices too....Doing as Christ did is Christian holiness.
