

Jesus Gave and Asks for All

Jesus was a radical. This is expressed by the word *J*all in today's Gospel: all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind. What does that word leave out? That's right, nothing! Jesus gave it all, and he asks for it all. That is radical.

Jesus is the first one to give us the example of this total and self-giving surrender to God the Father. When prayer was more important than sleep, he prayed. When he had to go without food, like in the desert, he did. When he knew that God wanted him to stay in town, he did. And when it was time to move on, he did as well. When he knew God wanted him to preach a word of compassion or condemnation, he did, regardless of whether the person was a beggar, Peter, Pilate, or Herod. He gave all his heart, mind, and soul to God.

And what about loving his neighbor as himself? He loved not only his perfect immaculate Mother, but he also loved his imperfect fellow human beings: his apostles, disciples, and fellow Jews whose faith and understanding were slow. He loved Judas and chased down discouraged apostles heading to Emmaus. He loved his enemies just as much. Tax collectors, publicans, Roman soldiers, Samaritans all received words and acts of love. The poor also had a special place in his heart, as was evident by his many miracles of soul and body for them.

His love even went beyond those people he encountered in his life and reached everyone for all times. He established the sacraments and his Church to accompany on their earthly pilgrimage all those who would follow him throughout history. He descended into hell to save those who had gone before him and opened heaven.

In short, he gave it all! And so he can ask the same from us as well.

For Reflection

What next thing is Jesus asking for as you strive toward giving him your all? There is joy that comes from giving our all. Do I experience that joy?

[Jesus] said..., "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" (Matthew 22:37).

Principal Corner.....
Every year thousands of children in Haiti and Guatemala experience a Christmas without hope. Burdened by poverty, their parents are simply too poor to provide anything but the most basic necessities. This year, our school has set a goal to send Christmas blessings to 100 of these needy children and we need your help.
*Pick up a Box of Joy box in the back of Church November 4 th or 5 th .
*Go shopping and select gifts to bring joy to a boy or girl, ages 2-14. Small toys, hygiene items, school supplies and hard candies are greatly appreciated.
*Donate $9 to cover the cost of shipping for the gift. A small portion of these funds support Catholic ministries serving the child's community.
*Drop off your Box of Joy at the back of the Church or in the school office by November 12 th and pray for the mission and children that receive the boxes.

Poco a Poco From the Desk of Fr. Terry...

Thank you to everyone who gave to our family in need's appeal. So far, $2,385 has been collected. This family is most grateful! I am also grateful to our Holy Name Society for supporting this most worthy cause. Reminder the Shooting Match sponsored by the Holy Name Society will be October 29th beginning at noon.

Our annual Parade of Saints with our school students will take place, Monday, October 30th immediately after 8am Mass. ALL are welcome!

Mass schedule change for only Tuesday, October 31st will be at 8am. November 1st is the Feast of All Saints; this is a Holy Day of obligation. Mass for this feast will be at 8am & 7pm. Due to the Holy Day, the Parish office will be closed October 31st at noon and reopen on November 2nd.

FYI: I will be on retreat Sunday, November 5th (after the weekend Mass) until Friday, November 10th. Deacon Paul will conduct communion services each day at the regularly schedule mass times.

This weekend is our final attendance, thank you to the ushers for counting.

Enjoy your week.....Fr. Terry

Thank You

On behalf of the Diaconate Community, and all the men in formation, thanks to all that supported the Annual Collection for the Diaconate.
- Deacon Paul

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

October 29, 2017

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

In the United States today, numerous Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests past age 70 benefit from the Retirement Fund for Religious collection. Donations to this special collection provide funding that helps religious communities care for senior members and plan for long-term retirement needs.

On the weekend of November 5, all parishes in the Archdiocese of St. Louis will take up the annual collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious, an opportunity for you to acknowledge the thousands of senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests for their faithful service.

Whether or not we realize it, we are all beneficiaries of the tremendous contributions these women and men have made to the Church in the United States. Through hard work, prayer, and sacrifice, they built Catholic schools and hospitals, initiated programs to promote social justice, and ministered to the neediest among us.

Today, many religious communities struggle to care for their elderly members. Elder sisters, brothers, and religious order priests dedicated their lives to service and prayer, and some lack adequate retirement savings. Increasing health-care costs and decreased income make it difficult to provide necessary medical care, costly medications and basic services.

Please consider making a financial gift to assist with the care of our senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. Many thanks for considering this request.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis

Dear Padre,

How do our prayers actually help people who are deceased? I keep thinking it should be the other way around: The deceased should pray for us! After all, they have it made—and we don't.

From the early days of the Church, there has been a tradition of remembering those who have died. In the fourth century, Bishop Cyril of Jerusalem noted in his catechetical instructions how, in the eucharistic prayer, we remember those who have died in two different ways. First, we remember those special ones who have fallen asleep, the fathers and mothers of our faith, the prophets, the apostles, and the martyrs. And we ask that God enable us to share in their inheritance, thanks to their prayers and intercessions for us. This is still the case. At every Mass, we remind God that we rely on Mary and the saints to intercede for us.

PEXELS

But also at every Eucharist, since the early days of the Church, when we pray for those who have died, we are reminded that love lasts more than a lifetime. It reaches out across time and space, and even across the divide of death. When we have loved, we yearn for the beloved to live on, not just in memory but in a place that is beyond suffering and tears. And we yearn to see that loved one again. This is one of the most telling reasons why we pray for the dead. It tells us something about ourselves as men and women made in the image of God, God's children who wish what God wishes: that no one be lost, that all be redeemed.

A Word From Pope Francis

Jesus did not say: "One of you go," but "All of you go": we are sent together. Dear young friends, be aware of the companionship of the whole Church and also the communion of the saints on this mission....Jesus did not call the Apostles to live in isolation, he called them to form a group, a community.

—Homily at annual World Youth Day, July 28, 2013
