

Changing Our Mentality

Jesus presents a different way of seeing, hearing, and judging. It takes some getting used to!

Peter, as a good friend, wants to protect Jesus from the cross he is announcing. Yet Jesus doesn't want protection from the will of the Father—rather he wants support. He invites Peter to change his mentality.

Jesus knew what was coming; he must suffer and be rejected. Suffering and rejection are not absolute evils. Our goal in life can't be to avoid suffering and to be accepted by everyone. If we pursue good and follow Jesus, we will also experience rejection. When Jesus tells us that following him means taking up our cross, it shouldn't surprise us when a cross is planted in our path with a sign saying, "Pick me up."

In the first reading, the prophet says he opened his ear and didn't rebel. When the consequences of this faith were abuse and rejection, he didn't shield his body and face. He could do so because, like Jesus, he was rooted in love and not fear. He didn't fear their arguments, ideas, and insults. He didn't fear what they could do to his body, for they couldn't touch his soul, his heart, his freedom.

When we know we are loved, and are following what is right, we have a confidence and a strength that the world knows not. It is a different way of seeing, hearing, and judging. It is of a higher order, a deeper source, and brings total peace. And it takes some getting used to!

For Reflection

When amidst situations of opposition, do I find my peace in Jesus and the truth?

What might steal my peace? Talk to Jesus about it and look for a solution in his gospel of the cross.

[Jesus said,] "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

PLEASE list student or family name on bag/envelope for tracking purposes for incentives to be offered - they can be sent thru the school office or placed in the bag hanging on the bulletin board/box on the table in church.

BOX TOPS FOR EDUCATION

New this year – you can send in DIMES as well since a Box Top = $.10

Please make sure to have the full Box Top -and expired Box Tops to not count!

Box Tops App – if you buy Box Tops items try to check the App as well since there are many bonus offers usually ranging from 2 extra to 100 extra Box Tops!

BEST CHOICE LABELS

Be sure to save the UPC portion (proof of purchase) along with the marking that it's a Best Choice product – if in doubt, please feel free to send in entire label or box. Milk is the only category that does not count!

K and R Market, Moser's, and Frick's Market – just to name a few, sell Best Choice products. With thousands of stores that sell them, friends and family from around the US could help as well.

On most Tyson products - we need the certificate on the product to be able to count it, not just the A+ marking on the front of the package.

MY COKE REWARDS

Codes can be found inside 12 or 24 packs of Coke products or for individually bought bottles in the cap - the codes can be sent in just like the other programs listed.

OTHER WAYS TO HELP

Schnucks Escrip Community Card - can pick up at store and just need to set it up for St Ignatius Loyola School then have it scanned at check out since a percentage of purchases goes to our school.

Shoparoo - free app available from Google Play Store and Apple App Store (so for iphones, ipads, ipods, and some android devices) Just take pictures of receipts for points that earn our school money and sweepstakes entries (depending on the type of receipt - only gas station receipts do not count for the program!) Go to www.shoparoo.com for more information. Helps with receipts for items you already bought – not just certain items!

If you have questions on any of these programs - feel free to contact Laura Atkins on fastdirect, rlatkins99@centurytel.net or in person.

Pastor's letter to the People of St. Ignatius

I am excited and very happy to be a part of my first Saint Ignatius Dinner Auction this weekend! The timing is great too because September is usually Stewardship month throughout the Archdiocese, which carries a strong biblical theme that all of us have heard--serving the Lord with our "time, talent, and treasure"--or, if using the more current Stewardship language of the Diocese: our "prayer, participation, and generosity." In a very impactful way, the Dinner Auction kicks off a Stewardship season in our parish for the next couple weeks. I note how even just the two words dinner and auction echo what Stewardship is all about, for the Dinner we share with Jesus at the Eucharistic table is the source of all the work we do in our parish, including this big fundraiser, and everywhere else in our lives! Understand then, workers at this event, that the tables in our hall, and indeed in all our homes, are nothing less than an extension of the altar in Church. Our thanks to Concord Hill Tech for bringing about this opportunity to serve at all the Lord's tables at St Ignatius and to become a more holy and generous Church!

Your servant always,
Fr Steve

Father Steve will be taking some extra classes in the next few weeks and this will affect our Mass schedule for some weekdays. Mass on the following Tuesdays will move from 7:30 p.m. to 8 a.m.: Sep 25, Oct 2, 16, 23. Also all priests are required to be away with the Archbishop listening to speakers at their Convocation, Oct 8-12. Please pray for all our priests to keep growing in their wisdom and Ministry.

Dear Padre,

If, for economic reasons, a couple wants to purchase a home together before they marry, is it permissible for them to live together?

In the recent past, it would have been rare to find an unmarried man and woman living together as roommates. Today, however, it's fairly common. Sometimes these arrangements are dictated by finances—a homeowner or renter finds he or she can't afford to live alone so the person seeks a roommate. Other times it's a result of friendship. In many ways this is a positive development—it shows we've learned to have intimate friendships that don't involve sex.

There's nothing immoral about inhabiting the same home. However, when a joint real-estate venture is more than a business deal and involves eventual marriage, there are hazards. It's important for the couple to be very clear about what they're doing. Buying a home is a huge commitment. They should remember that real estate is one commitment, marriage is another, and they aren't interchangeable. It would be easy for one partner to insist on the house for economic reasons when the joint purchase is really an attempt to seal the marriage deal in advance.

Buying a house together could create marriage pressures, making it difficult to back out due to a change of heart. Such arrangements are full of possibilities for misunderstanding, disappointment, and anger. Unless it's clear that joint home ownership is—until marriage—just a business deal (and clear legal contracts are drawn up), it's not advisable.

A Word From Pope Francis

[Jesus said,] "If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily and follow me." This is not an ornamental cross or an ideological cross, but it is the cross of life, the cross of one's duty, the cross of making sacrifices for
