MARK 1:18

A New World Is Coming

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Our lives are filled with calls of one kind or another. Phone calls, text messages, teachers who call on us in class, those who call us for supper, people behind a counter who call out, “Next!” And, sooner or later, death will call each of us.

Jonah was once called to go to Nineveh, and the people of Nineveh were called to repent and change their lives. Simon and Andrew, John and James were called to follow Jesus. And today God calls each of us, but it is never easy to sort out what it is we are called to do.

Saint Paul took pains to tell us that “the world in its present form is passing away” (1 Corinthians 7:31). That being true, then God’s call is always into a new way of life, which seems to imply leaving something behind, not unlike the four followers in Sunday’s Gospel leaving their fishing nets and their father Zebedee in his boat.

The world that is passing away may be childhood, or productivity as we age. The new world may require confronting addiction and leaving a life of what we thought we couldn’t live without. Or, like the people of Nineveh who were called to repent, it might be a call for our nation to confront our failure to engage in dialogue about and find solutions to injustice in its many forms at home and abroad. Who knows what God’s new world will be? ●

We welcome Father Farrell E. "Mac" McLaughlin of Cross Catholic Outreach who is speaking this weekend at all Masses on behalf of the poor in developing countries. Cross Catholic Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priest and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I will be on vacation for the last two weeks of January. I will be leaving after Mass on Tuesday, January 16 and returning on Thursday, February 1. During this time away, there will be priests here to celebrate the weekend Masses and Bishop Rivotuso will make a special visit to all three parishes as well. Bishop Rivotuso has been visiting parishes throughout the archdiocese to promote devotion to the Holy Eucharist. He will celebrate the 8:00 am Mass at St. Ignatius of Loyola on Thursday, January 18. On Monday, January 29, Bishop Rivotuso will celebrate the 8:00 am Mass at Immaculate Conception AND a 10:00 am Mass at St. Vincent de Paul. These Masses are open to all parishioners.

On the weekend of January 20-21, Rev. Farrell "Mac" McLaughlin of Cross Catholic Outreach will celebrate all the Masses and speak on behalf of the poor in developing countries. I know you will welcome Father Mac and be generous in response to his appeal.

On the weekend of January 27-28, I have invited Fr. Tony Ritter to celebrate all of the Masses. You may remember Fr. Tony from his years serving as associate pastor at St. Francis Borgia Parish and at Borgia High School. Fr. Tony is now the associate vocation director for the archdiocese. Fr. Tony is a wonderful young priest, and he might have a special message for our youth.

Even though I am away from my three parishes, you will be remembered in my prayers and at Holy Mass. Please keep me in your prayers too!

Proceeds to benefit St Ignatius School

Dear Padre,

While on vacation, I attended Mass at a church where many people left right after Communion. Why would they do this?

Canon law says the faithful are bound to participate in the Mass on Sundays and other holy days. We are expected to attend the entire Mass.

A misunderstanding of this law may be traced to a pre-Vatican II teaching. Some theologians taught that the Mass had three main parts: offertory, consecration, and Communion. Some people reasoned that their obligation would be fulfilled by attending only those parts of the Mass. They felt justified in coming late and leaving early.

This changed with the Second Vatican Council (1962–1965). The Mass is divided into four sections (introductory rites, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, concluding rite), and Christ is present throughout the Mass. Attending Mass means being there from the processional hymn through the recessional hymn.

Some people have valid reasons for leaving Mass early, such as feeling ill or taking a crying child from church. Perhaps they are traveling and need to get to the airport on time. Still, I also wonder why there is a great exodus before the Mass has ended in some churches. In my opinion, people who are in the habit of leaving early should reconsider that practice. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Brothers and sisters, before the Lord's call, which can reach us in a thousand ways—through others, happy or sad events—our attitude at times might be rejection. But God's call is always love: we have to try to discover the love behind each call, and it should be responded to only with love.
