

Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps.

1 PETER 2:21

Saved by Love, Not by Suffering

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

I'm not sure there is any value in suffering in and of itself. Nor do I think God wants us to suffer. That would make him sadistic. Nor is it, then, Jesus' suffering and death that saves us, but rather his love even to the point of suffering and death that saves us. It is his love that reveals the greatness of God's love for us that is so unbelievable. The basis of our faith is Jesus' trust in God, who would bring about life even through death. We also hear the wisdom of St. Peter today: "...If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God" (1 Peter 2:20). Such is the shepherd's voice that teaches us and leads us.

Does anyone ever choose to suffer for doing what is good? Yes. Every day. Spouses become caregivers for husbands or wives robbed of their memories. Each day people go to jobs that are pure drudgery, and they do so because they love their families. Some choose to live simply, to be countercultural in a consumer society. Others help their community by living in neighborhoods many avoid. Some parents willingly postpone a career in order to be present to their growing family. Teachers often go beyond expectations for students who need extra help. It is never the suffering of these people that captures and reflects the image of Jesus, but the love even to the point of suffering. ●

Reflect

When are you patient in suffering for the sake of doing good?

Who has done the same for you?

For a full listing of the ministries that benefit from your gift to the Appeal, please see the back panel of the brochures in the back of church. There are also prayer cards for you to take.

Did you know there are 2 Big Black bins in the back of Church for the Hot Lunch Program donations? These can be a drop off for non-perishable foods like can goods, or boxed foods. Also, the kitchen asks that if you drop off after hours in the kitchen to put a name on it of who donated AND more importantly the date of drop off. They are trying to make sure there is less waste in the kitchen.

Thank You!

Mother's Day Breakfast 5/14/23

See enclosed Flyer for more information.

They are looking for egg donations for the breakfast. Anyone that has some eggs to donate can contact any of the consultants and they would be happy to pick up or you can drop off at the kitchen and designate for the Mother's Day Breakfast.

Pastor's Letter to the People of St. Ignatius

Good Shepherd Sunday today, offers real wisdom for what the value of Church is. We come here to meet Shepherds of many kinds, all of whom show us the guidance of Christ. I have the privilege of meeting with many leaders at this Parish and all of them show the kind of Good Shepherd leadership that Christ would show: School Board, Parish Council, Consultors, Administration-Finance Council, Liturgy, and worship organizers-- and now returning--the Parents Faith Support Ministry, to offer social events to help us come together more closely as a fun faith community. Last week I was privileged to meet with our Administration-Finance Council. That is the full official name that the Church gives that group at every Parish, although most of their discussions are about numbers. They only tend to get into administrative matters if I ask those kinds of questions. But their guidance of me as Pastor is so filled with Christ's kind of wisdom, that I can never see their input as just advice for my decisions for use of Parish funds. They truly give me advice based on Gospel values. I have often said that I wished government would put good moral values behind their use of our tax dollars. In addition to those 'good shepherds,' we have more coming to help us create another Healing Prayer Service in our Church this Friday at 7:00 p.m. I hope you will keep giving yourselves the gift of joining with the great people at our Parish who offer you guidance like a shepherd. Create a FORMED Faith discussion group or join one that is already going. The increase of wisdom about your Faith that you can gain together from one of these groups is golden. Finally, the best thing about all these Shepherds that we have at Church, is they are all guided by the Good Shepherd, Jesus Himself. Rejoice this Sunday in how good it is that we get to be Church!

Dear Padre,

In the Apostles' Creed, we profess that Jesus "descended into hell." Is there any biblical reference to this? Do we know what he did when he was there?

Jesus Christ—who experienced death completely—descended to the realm of death. By his resurrection from the dead on the third day, he conquered death and the devil, “who has the power of death” (Hebrews 2:14). Other scriptural references include Acts 3:15, Romans 8:11, 1 Corinthians 15:20, and Hebrews 13:20. An ancient homily for Holy Saturday also attests to this belief: “God has fallen asleep in the flesh and he has raised up all who have slept ever since the world began....Greatly desiring to visit those who live in darkness and in the shadow of death, he has gone to free from sorrow Adam in his bonds and Eve, captive with him....I order you, O sleeper, to awake. I did not create you to be a prisoner in hell. Rise from the dead, for I am the life of the dead.”

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, “Jesus did not descend into hell to deliver the damned, nor to destroy the hell of damnation, but to free the just who had gone before him” (CCC 633). His descent was to proclaim the Good News to the spirits imprisoned there, bringing “the Gospel message of salvation to complete fulfillment” to all people of all times and all places (CCC 634). Thus, “the gospel was preached even to the dead” (1 Peter 4:6). ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

It is not always easy to discern the Good Shepherd's voice. Be careful. There is always the risk of being distracted by the din of so many other voices. Today we are invited not to let ourselves be distracted by the false wisdom of this world, but to follow Jesus...the one sure guide....
