

[Jesus] said to them..., "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."
And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the holy Spirit."

JOHN 20:21-22

Freed by the Spirit

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Fear can be a most powerful imprisoning force. Like the apostles who locked themselves behind closed doors after the resurrection for fear of the local leaders, there are times when our own fears lock us out of the future and into our past.

We find ourselves choosing not to be generous for fear that if we are, we will find ourselves empty-handed with no one to care for us because all of our resources have been used up. And so, because of our fear, we lock ourselves into our own selfishness. At other times, we hesitate to be kind for fear that our care will be misconstrued or, worse, will be taken advantage of and abused. And so, for fear of continual demands upon our kindness, we lock ourselves into indifference. At other times, we find ourselves too cautious to speak out in the face of injustice because of a misguided respect for "someone else's business" or because we are afraid anger or rejection will come down upon us. So, we lock ourselves into silence.

It is always the Spirit, however, that enables us to unlock those doors once locked by our fear. While that new power enables us to venture into a sometimes-shattering world, it does not promise we won't be shattered in the process. All that Jesus promised is that the Spirit would bring us peace. Such peace happens to us whenever we choose not to succumb to our fears. It is indeed a new creation taking place in us, even now.

Has fear ever paralyzed you, keeping you from doing good?

Pastor's Letter to the People of St. Ignatius

You may have heard that the Diocese chose this weekend for announcing the future of all parishes, because it was Pentecost when the Holy Spirit gave birth to the Church, and the Diocese is calling us to see these announcements as a new birth of Church here. As I write this, I do not yet know what the announcement is for Saint Ignatius. But whether we are merged, or merely joined with the other parishes along the river, we are going to have some changes to face when we only have one priest for three parishes, and we will need to trust that the Spirit can make something new out of that new situation. I don't know where a new pastor will live between more than one rectory or what the new Mass schedule will be. The Diocese did ask all the current pastors to come up with a tentative new Mass schedule, based on our knowledge of our people's needs. Father Doyle and I came up with a schedule of four Masses between the three churches along the river, with one Mass being at St Ignatius. The new pastor, after consulting with you and the people at the other two parishes, will decide all the particulars of the new schedule. I am giving you a few clear pieces of information because it can be a comfort to learn a few points during an uncertain time. The temptation is to try and start planning and figuring out everything. I've even heard a few conspiracy theories led by phrases such as, "what is really going on with all things new is....."

What we need to do is take our time and trust the Pentecost Spirit to walk us through the changes that are coming step by step. Be good to yourself. Be good to one another. Much love!

Father Steve

Dear Padre,

I am a practicing Catholic and I don't remember being confirmed. Is it too late for me to be confirmed?

The sacrament of confirmation usually happens when a person is older, and therefore you would likely remember the occasion. It could be that you were not confirmed. You can check with the parish you lived in during your school years to be sure. They keep records of confirmations done in the parish.

Confirmation is the final sacrament of initiation. Baptism ushers us into our life with God by giving us new life. Confirmation seals us with the spirit so we can follow Jesus and live out our particular vocation. And the Eucharist gives us strength for the journey and keeps us in union with God.

If you discover you have not been confirmed or if you can't find out for certain, talk with your pastor. You would not be the first adult seeking confirmation. Your pastor can tell you how your diocese handles confirmation for adults. There might be a program of adult instruction for confirmation to ensure you understand the sacrament and the teachings of the Church.

Today is Pentecost, the day when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit into the lives of the apostles. The Spirit gave them strength for what they had to do. The Spirit can do the same for you.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

On the day of Pentecost, Jesus' disciples were still disoriented and fearful. They did not yet have the courage to go out in the open. We too, at times, prefer to remain within the protective walls of our surroundings. But the Lord...sends upon us the Holy Spirit who envelops us and overpowers all our hesitations.
