Mass Time Changes Beginning this Tuesday, September 25th, and several Tuesdays through October 23rd, Fr Steve will be taking in a lecture series on moral theology at Aquinas Institute. This will mean Tuesday evening 7:30 p.m. Mass will be suspended and Mass on those Tuesdays will be at 8 a.m. instead. The exception will be the second week of October, October 8th to 12th, when Fr Steve and all the priests of the Diocese will be away taking in various lectures sponsored by the Archbishop for all priests. On those weekdays there will be no Mass and there will be a Communion Service at all the regular Mass times.		Coca Cola Give sent us a check for $59.60! Pastor's letter to the People of St. Ignatius

It is Stewardship Sunday all over the Diocese! We have some awesome stewardship I want to "boast in the Lord" to you about at St. Ignatius. Several people have asked me since our Dinner Auction last Saturday, if I have seen any events like that at my previous parishes. I may have been to a few events that were as fun, but I have never seen any events that were more fun! It is a lot of fun, as a priest, to witness the dedicated STEWARDSHIP of our leaders of that event and that of so many fellow workers, and the amazingly generous donated auction items! In fact two new workers that some of you saw, helping with setup and cleanup, are friends of mine who have experienced our great Spirit of worship at Mass and hard-working stewardship of the auction. They were staying at the rectory last weekend and were so moved by our Spirit, they decided to pitch in and support the auction with their hard work. You may see them with us if you happen to be at Saturday night Mass: Steve and Anne Robinson-Worley. Their testimony reminds me of the same praise about you that I heard from the Missionary from the Congo, and the Vicar of Priests, Fr Boehm, who said how jealous he was that I get to be your Pastor. I just keep hearing about the great Stewards of Saint Ignatius! OK, you must be tired of hearing me go on about this.

God's rewards to his Stewards of his great gifts!
Father Steve

Life Chain

You can join thousands across our nation who are willing to stand in prayer and peaceful public witness for unborn children.

Since 1972, over 50 million unborn children, almost one third of our current generation, have been killed by abortion.

Today millions of mothers and fathers live in anguishing regret for their abortion decisions.

If you are willing to stand in witness of the children who have been lost, and in loving support of those hurting from abortion, then join us for Life Chain.
